++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rather cloudy today with some rain, mainly across the north.

Today:
Some early brightness in the far east, on an otherwise cloudy day with some rain. Outbreaks generally patchy, but more persistent and potentially heavier during the afternoon across Moray. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Tonight:
Overcast through the evening and night with occasional rain, which turns heavy at times, particularly across northern areas of Moray and Aberdeenshire. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Tuesday:
Rather cloudy with further rain, this generally patchy and light, but risk some heavier bursts early in day across north. Some limited brightness developing from noon, chiefly from Deeside southwards. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Rather cloudy with further rain, most of this fleeting and light, but more organised rainband crossing from northwest late Thursday, early Friday.
